The Sculpture Research Semiyearly

Calls for Submissions

In the spirit of encouraging researches in the field of sculpture, the Sculpture Research Semiyearly was founded by Juming Museum. The Sculpture Research Semiyearly is a biannual journal issued every March and September. Submission guidelines are set up as below:

1. Unpublished academic writings in the field of sculpture/plastic arts are all welcomed. Topics of such may include:
 - 1.1 studies on sculpture art theories, sculpture art history, and plastic art aesthetics
 - 1.2 critiques or studies of sculpture/plastic artists (activities), exhibitions, or art creation
 - 1.3 discussions on the collection, circulation, restoration, preservation, exhibition, and education of sculpture/plastic arts
 - 1.4 museum studies on sculpture/plastic arts
 - 1.5 book reviews on sculpture/plastic arts
 - 1.6 surveys on sculpture/plastic arts
2. Lengths of submissions are advised to be about 20,000 words for academic papers and 10,000 for others.
3. Submissions should include abstracts and keywords in both English and Chinese, texts, notes, catalogues, references, and appendix. Also, please follow the essay format of the journal.
4. The Sculpture Research Semiyearly employs a review system that involves three expert reviewers. Articles will be published after passing the review but adjustments may be made on which issue the articles would be published due to the nature or the number of words of the articles.

5. Authors should obtain authorization of the copyright of pictures used in the texts and tables themselves. More information and guidelines on copyright can be found from “Copyright Consent/Statement” in the Sculpture Research Semiyearly.
6. The royalties are NT$2/word. Upper limit of words for academic papers is 20,000 and 10,000 for others. Royalties for graphics are NT$350/piece and the upper limit is 10 pieces.
7. Submissions should be mailed as registered letters to Juming Museum, No.2, Xishihu, Jinshan District, New Taipei City 20842, TAIWAN (R.O.C.) addressing to “Sculpture Research Semiyearly Editorial Board” or email to sculpture.research@jumingmuseum.org.tw.
