

GLOBAL COMMUNITY PROFESSOR

Apply for Spring Semester 2024

Within the framework of our UDEM vision, which moves us to be an innovative and flexible educational ecosystem, that is committed to our principles, values and offers transforming experiences for individuals and society, Universidad de Monterrey opens admissions for "GLOBAL COMMUNITY PROFESSOR".

We are looking for professors with international experience who are inspiring, flexible and sensitive to global needs, who share their knowledge and values of the University through their service to others.

Apply here through Job Opportunities:

http://job_opportunities.udem.edu.mx/

About Universidad de Monterrey

Universidad de Monterrey is an institution that provides academic excellence through comprehensive training and commitment to sustainability, within an inclusive and innovative environment.

What we are looking for

The GLOBAL COMMUNITY PROFESSOR may develop the following activities depending on their area of expertise.

- Teaching.
- Collaboration and development of High Impact Projects.
- Conferences, seminars and/or summits.
- Mentoring of Outstanding Students.

Participating in the Schools or Faculties of the University:

- Architecture and Habitat Sciences.
- Art and Design.
- Health Sciences.
- Law and Social Sciences.
- Education and Humanities.
- Engineering and Technologies.
- Business.

Effective date

Until November 17, 2023.

What we offer

Traveling expenses, transportation, lodging, visit and stay for the Spring semester 2024.

Resolution

we will contact you through the following email:

visitingprofessor@udem.edu.mx
by mid December 2023.

Equal Opportunity Employer

Within the framework of respect and without any type of discrimination, the University of Monterrey promotes equal opportunities, the integral development of people and the growth of its collaborators.