There is no such thing as a curry!

Dr. Stephen Jacobs

The University of Wolverhampton, UK

In this talk I will give a brief overview of the influences and transformations of foodways in India. Specifically I will indicate how diverse the cuisine of India is. I will look at some of the historical factors to demonstrate that Indian food has been transformed by outside influences, such as Persian cuisine the European colonial powers, and the processes of globalisation. I will also discuss how the Hindu traditions impact on various aspects of diet and eating.

ALL IS WELCOME!
