An overview of destinations

NHA TRANG

Nha Trang is well known for its beaches and scuba diving and has developed into a popular destination for international tourists, attracting large numbers of backpackers, as well as more affluent travellers on the Southeast Asia circuit; it is already very popular with Vietnamese tourists, with Nha Trang Bay widely considered as among the world's most beautiful bays.

Cu Chi is about 40 kms northwest of Ho Chi Minh City in Southern Vietnam. The Cu Chi Tunnels are an elaborate underground community made up of 250 kms of tunnels, chambers below the city. During the war in Vietnam, thousands of people lived in an elaborate system of underground tunnels...

CU CHI TUNNELS

HO CHI MINH CITY

HCM City is only 300 years old but has many human and historical values created by the exchange of different cultures. The culture of the former Saigon and present-day HCM City shows an original characteristic of the Vietnamese culture and the historical and geographical context of the country's Southern region.

MEKONG DELTA

An unforgettable trip of seeing the Mekong delta is to take a boat trip along Mekong river, you will pass paddy fields, water buffaloes, tangled fruit orchards, and excited, waving children. In the delta's town, the river remains the central focus of life, ferrying travellers and goods to market and linking the delta with the world beyond. To explore the life of local people in Mekong Delta you take a few days homestay in Cai Be, the floating market in Can Tho, and the hillside pagodas of Chau Doc. The itinerary provides a unique glimpse into the daily life of the mighty deeper Mekong Delta.
