

TOYO WINTER PROGRAM 2018

Experience the SNOW Life!

Toyo Winter Program 2018 will examine Japanese culture and society of SNOWY district, comparing traditional and modern, as well as urban and rural Japan. The program will be a combination of classroom activities, field trips, and experiential learning. Most of the program will take place in Tokyo, but participants will also have an opportunity to do a homestay with Nouka-minshuku (farming families) in Myoko, a deep snowy district in Niigata Prefecture on the Sea of Japan. While in Myoko, participants will experience real life in snow area and get some wisdoms of the way to live in snow area. At the end of the program, participants will give presentations on Japan's attractive qualities from an international perspective.
