"Berkeley is a fantastic place to conduct research on China, I particular enjoyed the collaborative spirit and interdisciplinarity. While at CAL go to colloquia, audit classes and engage with people outside your immediate field...there is certainly no shortage of interesting things to explore and inspiring people to meet."

- Elena Lichtenthaler, Visiting Student Researcher
Georg-August-Universität Göttingen, East Asian Studies

"As a native of Taiwan, I was unfamiliar with campus life at Berkeley. CCS organized social activities to help scholars get to know each other and explore the Bay Area. CCS also provided plenty of resources, such as visa meetings, writing workshops and visiting scholar programs, to help international scholars adapt to life at Berkeley."

- Ji-jen Hwang, Visiting Scholar
National Defense University, Political Science
