國立政治大學社會科學院院長遴選委員會 啟

中華民國 110 年 4 月 8 日

Position Announcement

Dean of the College of Social Sciences National Chengchi University

Applications and nominations are invited for the position of the Dean of the College of Social Sciences, National Chengchi University, Taipei, Taiwan. The Dean is the chief academic and administrative officer for the College and reports to the President. The initial term is for 3 years with a renewable second term.

The College of Social Sciences can date back to 1957 and was officially named in 1993. Currently, it has 129 full-time faculty members distributed among seven departments, three graduate institutes, three international (English-taught) degree programs, as well as three in-service master's programs, including one designed for indigenous peoples. The College also houses eleven multi-disciplinary research centers. The total student enrollment is approximately 3,500.

The mission of the College of Social Sciences is to elevate the quality of teaching, research and service in social science education, with an aim to prepare students for being “empathetic future leaders.” In addition to professional development in each academic field, the College emphasizes the advancement of students’ core competencies by constructing an interdisciplinary learning atmosphere.
