4.OIA only announces or assists our school's students in registering for short-term activities or courses offered by contracted schools. Whether credits from these short-term courses can be transferred to our school is subject to the regulations of the Academic Affairs Office, and participating students must comply accordingly. If the activity falls within our school's academic semester, students must follow our school's regulations to apply for leave of absence.

CNUISS offers students the opportunity to take up to two (2) courses (6 credits), taught by distinguished faculty from CNU and our global partners. Beyond the classroom, students will explore Korea through exciting excursions and cultural activities, alongside students from over 20 different countries.
